Join us for an evening of electricity and music hosted by Second Generation Rockabilly Hall of Famer Robby Vee.

Robby Vee "The Prince Of Twang" was born Robert Velline named after his father Bobby Vee. He is recognized by both the American and Canadian Rockabilly Hall of Fames and has been performing his unique style of Rock-n-Roll music for years on stages across the globe. Having been on tour with the legends and architects of rock-n-roll, Robby has learned from, and shared credits and stages with the best, from James Burton to Carl Perkins, Albert Lee, Little Richard, the Everly Brothers, Sir Paul McCartney, Eric Clapton, Dion, The Righteous Brothers, Buddy Holly's Crickets, Dick Clark and his 'Caravan of Stars Rock 'N' Roll Show', his father, 60's pop rocker Bobby Vee and many more. Robby is known for combining elements of his vast repertoire telling stories that bridge the generation gap from "the roots of Rock n Roll to the new sounds of Americana music of today". As an Entertainer with many studio records to his name, countless guest artist credits, and a history of extensive touring, Vee has captured the attention of audiences and respected industry professionals both Nationally and Internationally. Claude Hall, radio-TV editor of Billboard magazine writes, "If this guy had been around during the era of Elvis, he would have given Elvis a run for his money."
